

Thank you.

Throughout 2018, the many successes in fundraising were the result of commitment and hard work by members of the Board of Trustees, chaired by Charles Altschul.

The generous support of individuals, foundations, corporations and government agencies provided critical funding for operations, acquisitions, exhibitions, education programming, and special projects. On behalf of the Board of Trustees, we honor all those donors who made our achievements possible.

Annual Leadership Letter to our Supporters

The Farnsworth Art Museum is uniquely qualified to tell the story of Maine's role in American art. We own a remarkable collection of American art that has been informed by artists living and working in Maine for more than 200 years. The Farnsworth's location in the center of Maine's Mid-coast region is the ideal location for sharing our collection with visitors, who come from all over the world. Our commitment to contemporary Maine artists is extraordinary. Since the museum opened in 1948, we have presented more than 400 exhibitions of work by living Maine artists. Our very mission to celebrate Maine's role in American art is inimitably ours.

A FEW STATISTICS FOR 2018:

82,306 in-person guests visited the museum and/or came to our events

9,676 people of all ages participated in educational programming, ranging from the intellectual to the entertaining

10, 626 visitors engaged with scheduled tours at the museum and its two historic sites

5,784 people attended our free community-focused events

We organized and presented 10 exhibitions, and recently reinstalled our permanent collection; we published two books and three issues of the FARNSWORTH magazine; our much-in-demand school programs served 2,183 students from 82 schools throughout Maine; 82,964 unique visitors logged onto our website; and we reached out to 12,579 social media followers via Facebook, Twitter and Instagram.

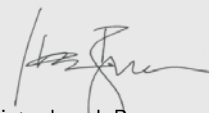

This year, we are placing a special focus on American and Maine contemporaries. In the Crosman Gallery, Slab City Rendezvous looks at a group of mid-century moderns, who decamped from New York to Midcoast Maine during summers from 1947 to 1975, creating works that have influenced contemporary American artists to this day. The Farnsworth also issued juried calls for Maine artists to contribute to two distinct projects, The Screen Show and the second annual Winter Windows Project. For the screen show, local artists were invited to produce an original work in response to a long screen-making tradition. Six screens were chosen and are currently on view in the Rothschild Gallery.

Finally, after a year's absence due to restoration work, Robert Indiana's EAT sculpture is back on its rooftop home, presiding over the City of Rockland. The Olson House has a new historically accurate roof, preserving the house's integrity for years to come. The Farnsworth continues to operate with a strong financial position and will continue to invest in enhancing the visitor experience, presenting exceptional and important exhibitions and educational programming. Together, we pronounce the State of the Museum to be sound and promising.

With warm regards to all,

Charles Altschul
