

Upcoming Farnsworth lectures and programs feature our Women of Vision and other women artists and speakers all year long! Check our calendar of events or subscribe to our e-newsletter, Art Cannot Be Contained, at www.farnsworthmuseum.org to receive updates and invitations.

PATRON EVENTS

Exhibition Opening and Series Kickoff

Wednesday, May 27, 5:30 to 6 pm

Presented virtually just for sponsors

Get ready for summer in Maine with a preview of what's on this season at the Farnsworth. Hear more about special patron's programs to honor the Women of Vision. Enjoy a preview of the Women of Vision exhibition and book. There's so much to look forward to this summer at the Farnsworth!

Private Museum Tour with the Director

Tuesdays through September

Presented by reservation for all sponsors

Explore the Farnsworth's nationally recognized collection and current exhibitions in a whole new way! You'll have the galleries to yourself and your guests with Museum Director Chris Brownawell while the museum is closed.

Women and Philanthropy: Making an Impact, Changing the World

Thursday, June 10, 5:30 to 6:15 pm

Presented virtually for $2,500 and above sponsors

Join artist Katherine Jackson (daughter of Maureen Rothschild), Libra Foundation board chair Penny Noyce (daughter of Elizabeth Noyce), and Katharine Maroney (longtime associate of Phyllis Wyeth) to hear about the extraordinary achievements of our Women of Vision philanthropists. Learn how women are addressing a range of social issues here in Maine and around the world.

Presentation of the Maine in America Awards with Honorary Chair Governor Janet Mills

Friday, July 16, 5:30 to 7:30 pm

Presented virtually for all sponsors

Our ceremony honors a dozen women and their families whose contributions to art and culture in Maine are profound. Some women leave lasting legacies while others continue to enhance the canons of art and philanthropy.

In an effort to ensure your safety and comfort, we will offer both small, intimate, in-person events, as well as virtual celebrations. As we've learned this past year, we will remain flexible and plans are subject to change.

Private Island Dinner and Collection Tour

Saturday, July 17, 4 to 8 pm

Presented in-person for sponsors of $10,000 and $25,000

A short boat ride takes us to this private island where we'll see one of the country's most spectacular American art collections.

Studio Tour with Artist Katherine Bradford

Thursday, August 5, 2 pm

Brunswick, Maine

Presented in-person for $5,000 and above sponsors

An enchanting and intimate look into the artist's Brunswick, Maine studio. Known for her paintings of swimmers, superheroes, and ships, Katherine's work is described as simultaneously representational and abstract, luminous, and richly metaphorical.

Women Artists at Work: A Conversation with Cig Harvey and Katherine Bradford

Thursday, August 26

(rain date Friday, August 27)

Arrival time, 7 pm

Shotwell Theater, Rockport

Presented in-person for $5,000 and above sponsors

Enjoy a fun evening at the drive-in and a lively conversation with Cig and Katherine moderated by Suzette McAvoy. After the program, we'll see a short film.

CONTEMPORARY CIRCLE

The Farnsworth is delighted to launch a special interest group for younger museum patrons. These events are intended for new patrons and are by invitation only.

Poetry and Pop

Tuesday, August 24, noon

(rain date August 25)

Summit Mount Battie, Camden Hills State Park
Limited to 75 people

Edna St. Vincent Millay wrote "Renascence" in 1912 while enjoying the view from Mount Battie. The poem would bring her international fame and is particularly relevant and poignant today. Enjoy the views and a popsicle at our special poetry reading.

Eat Flowers with Cig Harvey

Tuesday, September 21, 4-6 pm

Endless Summer Flower Farm, Camden

Limited attendance, $50 charge

Fine art photographer Cig Harvey is known for her surreal images of nature and family. Enjoy an informal talk at the site of one of her Women of Vision exhibition pieces on the lush grounds of a local dahlia farm while meeting other young patrons and enjoying floral cocktails (or tea) and blossom-themed hors d'oeuvres.

COMMUNITY EVENTS

Your sponsorship funds these collaborative programs that bring our community together.

Mural Project with AIO Food and Energy Assistance Through Memorial Day

AIO Food and Energy Assistance, Rockland

Inspired by six Women of Vision visual artists, this 6 x 20 foot mural project, directed by Alexis Iammerino, will be created for AIO's greeting room and will be revealed Memorial Day weekend. AIO addresses food and energy insecurity in Knox County.

Fall Family Festival

Mid-October

At the Farnsworth Museum

We wrap our series with a fall festival focused on Native American art. This art-filled day includes artist demonstrations and hands-on activities for kids.